

FIRST FRIDAY FILM FESTIVAL

UNITARIAN CHURCH PARISH HALL

312 FILLMORE STREET, ONE BLOCK EAST OF SNUG HARBOR

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 6, 7:30 PM

"Ground breaking... Full of hope, despair, and insight... personalizes political conflict more powerfully than any film I have ever screened for my students."
Professor K. Samuelson, Stanford University, Department of Communication

"Extraordinary! Intensely personal and insightful - a humanist's dream."
Julie Salamon, The New York Times

"Stunning and powerful! Should not be missed.
Their acts of camaraderie transcend politics and ethnicity."
Howard Rosenberg, Los Angeles Times

Documentarians Justine Shapiro and B.Z. Goldberg went to Israel to work on a project about children and conflict, interviewing Palestinian and Israeli kids ages 11-13 to get their views on living in a society afflicted with violence, separatism and religious and political extremism. The film culminates in an astonishing day when two Israeli children meet Palestinian youngsters at a refugee camp.

A 2002 Oscar nominee for Best Feature Documentary.

106 minutes. Arabic, Hebrew and English dialogue with English subtitles.

This screening is sponsored by the UCSI Social Concerns Committee and Peace Action of Staten Island.

The church is located at 312 Fillmore Street near Snug Harbor.

Free Snacks!

A $5 donation is requested.
